A TOWN OF FIRSTS

Known as the Storytelling Capital of the World, Jonesborough is home to the first and only annual National Storytelling Festival. We celebrate many other firsts as well! Jonesborough's story begins in the 18th century, when we were the first capital of the autonomous State of Franklin, established in 1784. In addition, our historic district was among the first from Tennessee to be listed on the National Register of Historic Places; and The Emancipator, the first periodical devoted solely to the abolishment of slavery was published here.

EXPERIENCE HISTORY FIRST-HAND

Experiencing Jonesborough through a walking tour is the best way to hear the ongoing tales of Tennessee's Oldest Town. Our Heritage Alliance tour guides, dressed in late 19th and early 20th century-style clothing, will escort you through the streets of Jonesborough while sharing little-known facts and the story of the Town from past to present.

THE CHESTER INN STATE HISTORIC SITE

Along the way, you'll visit Main Street's Chester Inn State Historic Site and Museum, located in the heart of downtown. The museum chronicles the history of Jonesborough from 1779 to the present.

In addition to the Chester Inn Museum, throughout Jonesborough, visitors can see many of the Town's most historic buildings. These include the Oak Hill School, where children can experience a day in the life of a student in 1892; the Christopher Taylor House, built in the 1770s; and the Mansion House, built in 1843 by the Town's first postmaster.

INTERNATIONAL STORYTELLING CENTER

With all of these stories to tell and many more, it's no wonder Jonesborough is considered the Storytelling Capital of the World. Our International Storytelling Center hosts listeners and tellers from across the globe, who gather to share tales both big and small through the Storytelling Live! program, Jonesborough's StoryTown Radio Show, and the Storytellers Guild.

On the first full weekend in October each year, we host the renowned National Storytelling Festival, the nation's oldest and most dynamic event dedicated to the oral tradition of storytelling showcases a variety of internationally-known artists.

THE ARTS ARE ALIVE

SPARK YOUR IMAGINATION

Jonesborough offers a thriving arts scene, with everything from music to theater to expert crafters and visual arts. The scene wouldn't be complete without storytelling, which can be experienced at several locations throughout downtown, such as the International Storytelling Center, with their Storytelling Live! program from May to October.

The Jonesborough Storytellers Guild hosts performances each Tuesday evening throughout the year. Our original storytelling radio hour, Jonesborough's StoryTown Radio Show, performs live the fourth Monday of each month.

The picturesque setting of Tennessee's oldest town in the heart of Appalachia makes for a musical experience like no other. Catch live music during Music on the Square every Friday night from May to September and Brews and Tunes on Sunday afternoons from June to September. Don't miss the qualifying rounds of Tennessee Songwriters Week at the Storytelling Center where musicians perform their original songs for the chance to compete at the finale event in Nashville.

THEATER AND CREATIVITY

Jonesborough Repertory Theatre offers everything from rich dramas and playful comedies to impactful music and inspiring dance, the theater performs a year-round schedule of shows for all ages.

In keeping with the Town's efforts of revitalization and preservation, the Town is embarking on an exciting new preservation project with a full restoration of its 1940s Jackson Theatre. The facility will serve as a music venue, theater, and an independent film house.

For visual arts, visit the McKinney Center at Booker T. Washington School, which opened as a school in 1940 to instruct African-American children. The Center was named after Ernest L. McKinney, who was principal of the school and the Town's first black Alderman. Here you'll find exhibits and local artisan spotlights throughout the year, as well as the Mary B. Martin Program. This program offers world-class educational opportunities in drawing, painting, mosaics, theater, dance, and music.

For more information about the arts, visit Jonesborough.com.

JONESBOROUGH EVENTS STORYTELLING CAPITAL OF THE WORLD

On a warm October day in 1973, the town of Jonesborough hosted the first National Storytelling Festival. The first event of its kind anywhere in the world, the Festival ignited a renaissance. People around the world have since rediscovered the power of a story well told.

COME OVER + STAY AWHILE

SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY

Jonesborough hospitality began when our oldest commercial structure—the Chester Inn—opened its doors to guests in 1797. In that same year, the foundation for the Historic Eureka Inn was built. Although initially a residence, the building was expanded and 100 years later, guests were welcomed to the Eureka Hotel. Although the name has changed twice, today the establishment's full restoration celebrates the glory days of 1900, and history has been reclaimed using “Eureka” in its current name—the Historic Eureka Inn.

Breakfast at the Historic Eureka Inn

In addition to beautifully preserved establishments, Jonesborough offers a variety of other lodging options including Country Inn & Suites, a contemporary hotel offering modern amenities; and several charming bed-and-breakfasts such as Hawley House Butterfly Cottage and Jonesborough

Bed and Breakfast. A short walk from any of these will take you to shopping, dining, theaters, and more, as well as walking and running trails.

See a complete list of lodging options in the back of this guide, and book your stay in Tennessee's Oldest Town!

Our Town offers a variety of beautiful, family-friendly parks for tossing a frisbee, taking a walk, or just relaxing in the shade. Nestled in the mountains of Northeast Tennessee along the Appalachian Trail, there is a world of opportunity for outdoor recreation here.

Camping, hiking, fishing, whitewater rafting, and biking are all within reach. With many public golf courses, this region has been recognized by Golf Digest Magazine as one of the premier places for hitting the greens.

Historic Jonesborough also has youth sports and recreational opportunities, several parks, and walking trails. Stage Road Park, just a block from downtown, offers walking trails, a tennis/pickleball court, playgrounds, and a pavilion. Mill Spring Park is a great place to relax by the creek or have a picnic, and its picturesque setting and lovely gazebo make it a favorite wedding venue.

The Lost State Scenic Walkway offers 3.5 miles of paved trails, and Persimmon Ridge Park hosts an 18-hole disc golf course and hiking trails. Luke's Trail, located inside Persimmon Ridge Park, can't be missed! As you reach the ridge on the trail, you'll come to a

THE PEARL OF TENNESSEE

BY BILL AND THE BELLES

Jonesborough, Jonesborough, it's the pearl of Tennessee
Jonesborough, Jonesborough, it's the pearl of Tennessee

I visit Jonesborough ever now and again
And every time I go, I always seem to make some new friends
It may be small but there's a whole lot to see
After all it is the oldest Town in all of Tennessee

Storytelling and fresh ripe watermelons
Chair making, and bread baking, and hand made goods people are selling
Live music seems to be everywhere
Have you ever heard of a thing called Music on the Square?

Well, next time you take a trip to Tennessee
Put the pedal to the metal and head due east
You'll find a little town tucked away just like a peal
